

BLAST is a weekend winter conference for middle school and high school students designed to lead them to experience Jesus and develop relationships with other students. Students are led through four main worship sessions, including live music, age-specific teaching and small group discussion. BLAST is more than just a fun weekend getaway, it's a life-changing experience that students will talk about for years to come!

When is BLAST?

BLAST 2018 is on Martin Luther King Jr. holiday weekend, January 12 - January 15, 2018. The first session for BLAST 2018 begins at 10:30PM on Friday, January 12 and the final session ends at 11:00PM on Sunday, January 14. We suggest you plan to arrive at 9:00PM on Friday, January 12 and depart by 10:00AM on Monday, January 15. Here is a copy of last year's BLAST schedule to give you an idea of how the weekend will flow.

Where is BLAST?

BLAST Winter Conference is located at the Kalahari Resort in the Wisconsin Dells. We transform the Kalahari Resort's conference space by adding a stage and creating seating for 1,400 students and adults.

How do I register our group for BLAST 2018?

Please register online by January 1, 2018.

What are the different registration options?

BLAST has a couple of different registration options for partner churches so they can maximize the BLAST conference for their youth gathering.
