MAKING MEMORIES

SESSION 1 - MAKING MEMORIES

SERIES BIG IDEA

This series will challenge us to take a big-picture view on what truly matters: our most important relationships.

MESSAGE BIG IDEA

Our most treasured memories are memories of meaningful relationships.

SCRIPTURE

Matthew 20:29-34

ICE BREAKER AND OPENING THOUGHTS

The icebreaker is designed to get people talking. If you have another one in mind or if your group is already chatting, feel free to adjust. The opening thought prepares the group for the subject matter.

DISCUSSION

Read the scripture verses, perhaps invite a small group member to read. The discussion should help everyone connect with and feel the tension between the crowd, the blind men, and Jesus. We also want people to connect with how Jesus slows down and sees the blind men, and then engages and heals them.

APPLICATION

A small group is the best context to challenge people to move from a life of hurry, worry, and busy to one that is modeled on Jesus - a life characterized by slowing down, seeing, and serving others. This kind of life doesn't automatically happen. It requires intentionality to fight the current culture of hurry and worry. We will often need the encouragement of a small group to make the right memories.

CHALLENGE

What relationship could you invest in this week? Make a plan this week to intentionally slow down, see, and serve that person. Share with the group what you intend to do and check in with each other the next time you meet. Close the group in prayer.
