

COMMUNITY Advocates for Global Ministries

Jim Melton is a husband to Kathy and father to Liana, Tessa, Alexa and Mark. He's a former math teacher and basketball coach who took a trip to Haiti and decided that a person's future should not be determined by the location of their birth. Jim eventually earned his Doctorate Degree in Biblical Studies and now serves as COMMUNITY's Global Partnerships Director as he attempts to help restore those living in extreme poverty.

COMMUNITY GLOBAL MINISTRIES

ALLEVIATING POVERTY
ONE PERSON AT A TIME

“And if you give yourself to the hungry, and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then your light will rise in darkness.” - Isaiah 58:10

CENTRAL AMERICA

Compassion International

COMMUNITY is a partner with Compassion International in Central America, where they have over 50 years of experience. In addition to being one of the best poverty alleviation organizations in the world, Compassion records over 400 decisions for Christ every day.

PHILIPPINES

Philippine Frontline Ministries

Philippine Frontline Ministries has been serving the Filipino people for over 30 years. Under the leadership of Jeff and Rowena Pessina, Frontline has grown to seven church campuses, a Christian school for over 100 children, a home to 30 former street children in the FACE the Children ministry – along with a prison ministry, hospital ministry, multiple feeding programs and a training program for future ministry leaders.
