2. Hearing different perspectives on the Parable of the Good Samaritan is a blessing. There are multiple ways to be challenged by this story. Some takeaways could include realizing that in order to be a good neighbor there are some personal sacrifices that involve your heart, your resources and your schedule. Or perhaps it is that God wants to surprise you and you will receive the answer to your prayer from an unexpected source. Whatever you and your group members take away from this beautiful parable, may we all "go and do likewise".
