Activity

Hand Tree

What You Need:

Paper, brown marker or crayon, paintbrush, and washable paint in green and at least one other color

What You Do:

Draw a tree trunk on the paper using the brown marker or crayon.

Say, "This tree trunk needs some branches. Let's paint your hand with green paint and press it on your paper to make the top of the tree. (Paint child's hand, press on their paper, then clean hand.) Your treetop has branches! Now, let's add some flowers to each branch. Press your fingertip in the paint and make several dots on the tree. (Pause.) Nice! (Clean fingers.) Look at the beautiful tree you made!

"Today in our Bible story, we learned that God told Adam and Eve to take care of the big, beautiful garden God had made. The Garden was full of trees with yummy food to eat. God told Adam and Eve they could eat from ANY tree but one. One day, a snake told Eve to eat the fruit that God said not to eat and she ate the fruit. Then Eve asked Adam to eat the fruit and Adam ate the fruit too! Oh, no! They made the wrong choice, and they had to leave the garden. But even though they had to leave the garden, God still loved them and gave them what they needed. Adam and Eve learned that they should have done what God said because God knows what's best for them. Who knows what's best for you? God knows what's best for me."

Dip in the Water

What You Need:

Toy figures that can get wet and a tub of water (or access to a sink)

What You Do:

Fill up the tub of water enough for the toy figure to be submerged.

Say, "I have a toy person for you to use as we talk about our Bible story. Today, we heard about a man named Naaman who was a very sick man. He had boo-boos on his skin. God said, 'Dip in water seven times.' Dip your person in the water as we count. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven. Then Naaman was better again! Good job!"

(Repeat as time and interest allow.)

"Naaman trusted that God knew what was best for him, and his boo-boos went away! We can trust that God knows what's best for us, too. Who knows what's best for you? God knows what's best for me!"
